

Damp room socket FS 1

The damp room socket is used as connection socket for OB / ZB telephones in a damp environment. The connection cord with round plug is supplied separately or with the relevant telephone instrument.

Possible areas of application:

- railways
- mountain railways / funicular railways / ski-lifts
- industry
- military engineering
- rescue
- security

Features:

- screw connection
- secure against cross poling
- protective cap secure against loss

Technical data:

material
device box with protective cap type of protection housing weight colour

Part no.:

61100

Applications:

- in damp rooms
- in protected places
in the outdoor area

thermoplastic
6 - polar contact output
IP 54
165 g
light grey, RAL 7035